

Hospitality Management: Available from the Six Regional Colleges

Do you wish to pursue a career in a people oriented, service driven, fast moving, creative industry where no two days are the same? Then the hospitality industry is for you. Providing exciting employment opportunities and gaining transferable skills that will allow you to progress at all levels, discover new countries, culture and people. All of our courses will kick start your career in such a vibrant and lively industry. The range of courses on offer allows you to choose a course which best fits your career aspirations, from an operational focus at Level 2/3 through to higher education and preparation for roles in Management.

Career Prospects:

Hotel Manager, Guest Relations Manager, Food and Beverage Manager, Hotel Receptionist. Food Service Host, Bartender, Barrista, Concierge, Event Management and Tourism Management

Interests: Customer service, problem solving, entrepreneurship, planning & organising

Course	Qualification	Entry Requirements	Key Areas of Study
Level 5 Hospitality Management 2 years The hospitality and tourism industry is a vibrant sector in the UK and one which makes a significant contribution to job creation and the national economy. This vocationally inspired foundation degree in partnership with Ulster University will provide you with the opportunity to develop high-quality business acumen and expertise to provide excellent guest satisfaction, along with the confidence to motivate and develop others, putting your leadership and management skills into action. This two-year programme, validated by Ulster University, is ideal for those who seek a professional career in organisations from hotels to event management, business development to	Foundation Science Degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management with Hospitality Specialism (Validated by Ulster University)	A range between 64-72 UCAS points. Must include 2 full A Levels or equivalent. GCSE Grade C in Maths and English or equivalent	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to Hospitality & Tourism • Food & Beverage Management • Facilities Operations • Events Operations • Managing Financial Performance • Marketing and Entrepreneurship • Human Resource Management • Food & Beverage Operations • Management in Action • Work Based Learning • Employability Skills

marketing companies and for those wishing to achieve recognised higher level qualification in Hospitality Management. This course includes a compulsory six-month period of work-based learning. Assessment is carried out using a range of methods. Students are required to supply their own front of house attire at the cost of approximately £50.00 (Front of house: black dress trousers, black shirt and black dress shoes). Students will be required to contribute approximately £20 towards the cost of educational visits on this programme
Level 5 Hospitality Management 2 1/2 years Part Time 1 day in college and contracted to work at least 21 hours per week This part time programme combines a Foundation Degree in Hospitality along with invaluable “on the job” training, the Higher Level Apprenticeship in Hospitality and Tourism Management delivers both skills development and knowledge enhancement using a blended learning and mentor based approach with the Hospitality Industry. This level 5 HLA programme will provide a fully funded career development	Higher Level Apprenticeship Foundation Science Degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management with Hospitality Specialism (Validated by Ulster University)	As a guide, you should expect to have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A minimum of 64 tariff points (UCAS New tariff points for entry to Higher Education) • You must also have minimum Grade C in GCSE Math and English (or equivalent). Applicants who do not meet the tariff points but do have prior learning and or specific industry experience may avail of the APEL (Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning) subject to Ulster University guidelines (Early application is advised if you require APL)	Working towards the achievement of a Foundation Degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management with Hospitality Specialism, you will benefit from learning and development in core skills such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Human Resource Management • Marketing and Entrepreneurship • Managing Financial Performance • Food and Beverage Management • Events Operations • Management in Action pathway, enabling new or existing staff to advance into supervisory/operational management positions within their chosen industry sector.

Level 3 Hospitality 2 years	Extended Diploma	4 GCSE's at Grade C or above including GCSE English at Grade C or above or equivalent, BTEC First Diploma/Certificate, NVQ Level 2 or Leaving Certificate	Students are required to supply their own kit, approximate cost £50 and contribute approximately £20 towards cost of educational visits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Planning and Managing hospitality event • The hospitality industry • Hospitality Business Enterprise • Contemporary World Food
Level 3 Food and Beverage Service Supervision 1 year	Diploma	Level 2 qualification in Food and Beverage Service or substantive industry experience	Students are required to supply their own kit, approximate cost £50 and contribute approximately £20 towards cost of educational visits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supervise food and beverage service • Supervise Hospitality events • Prepare and serve wines • Barista
Level 2 Food and Beverage Service 1 year	Diploma	3 x points at Level 2. It is essential that you possess the commitment, enthusiasm and positive attitude required to succeed in this customer-facing industry.	Students are required to supply their own kit, approximate cost £50 and contribute approximately £20 towards cost of educational visits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food and beverage service skills • Handling payments and maintaining the payment point • Menu knowledge and design • Service of hot beverages